

Mapping TOEFL ITP scores to the CEFR

This mapping study identified the minimum scores on the TOEFL ITP tests that correspond to the A2, B1, B2 and C1 levels of the CEFR. Minimum scores were identified separately for the Listening Comprehension, Structure and Written Expression, and Reading Comprehension sections.

Certificates are available in three levels as proof of achievement of English-language proficiency. Each level corresponds to a CEFR level: C1 (Gold certificate); B2 (Silver certificate); and B1 (Bronze certificate).

The table below presents the scaled cut scores for the TOEFL ITP Level 1 test:

CEFR Levels	TOTAL Minimum TOEFL ITP Scores Level 1 (310 to 677 pts.)	Listening Comprehension	Structure and Written Expression	Reading Comprehension
C1 Proficient User— Effective Operational Proficiency	627	64	64	63
B2 Independent User— Vantage	543	54	53	56
B1 Independent User— Threshold	460	47	43	48
A2 Basic User — Waystage	337	38	32	31

The cut scores represent the minimum scores needed to enter the CEFR levels. These recommendations are based on the results of mapping studies with expert panels and data analyses of test-taker scores.

C1
Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts and recognize implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organizational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

B2
Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialization. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue, giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

B1
Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise while traveling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

A2
Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance. Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

The power of the TOEFL® test in your classroom

The classroom is where it all happens. The TOEFL® ITP Assessment Series gives you real insight into your students' performance so you can shape their tomorrow and help them succeed.

Designed to meet your testing needs and preferences

The TOEFL ITP Program was developed to meet the demand from institutions and teachers for a convenient, affordable and reliable method to evaluate the students and curriculum of existing English language learning programs.

The TOEFL ITP assessments share the same rich heritage as the TOEFL test — the world's most widely accepted and respected English-language assessment. The two tests are to be used for separate purposes and administered differently. The TOEFL test is a high-stakes exam administered by ETS for institutions to make high-stakes decisions, such as student admissions. TOEFL ITP tests are administered locally by institutions or ETS Preferred Network offices and can be used for a range of defined purposes.

7 ways you can use the TOEFL ITP tests in your classroom

The TOEFL ITP tests measure core English skills using academic content similar to what is used in actual classroom tasks. This makes the tests an essential tool for:

A snapshot of the TOEFL ITP Assessments

The TOEFL ITP tests use an academic context to evaluate the English-language proficiency of nonnative English speakers. The tests are paper based. All questions are multiple choice, and students answer them by filling in an answer sheet. Two proficiency levels are available.

The tests evaluate skills in three areas:

- Listening Comprehension: measures the ability to understand English, including short and long conversations and short talks or lectures.
- Structure and Written Expression: measures the ability to recognize standard written English.
- Reading Comprehension: measures the ability to read and understand short passages written in English at the university level.
